The Police Board caused a hearing on these charges against Police Officer Linda Brumfield, Star No. 13383, to be had before Jacqueline A. Walker, Hearing Officer of the Police Board, on July 15, 2009, July 28, 2009 and September 9, 2009.

Following the hearing, the members of the Police Board read and reviewed the record of proceedings and viewed the video-recording of the testimony of the witnesses. Hearing Officer Walker made an oral report to and conferred with the Police Board before it rendered its findings and decision.

POLICE BOARD FINDINGS

As a result of its hearing on the charges, the Police Board of the City of Chicago finds and determines that:

- (1) The Respondent was, at all times mentioned herein, a police officer employed by the Department of Police of the City of Chicago;
- (2) The charges were filed, in writing, and a Notice, stating the time, date and place, when and where a hearing on the charges was to be held, together with a copy of the original charges were served upon the Respondent more than five (5) days prior to the hearing on the charges;

(3) Throughout the hearing, the Respondent did not appear in person, but was represented by legal counsel;

(4) Respondent, Police Officer Linda Brumfield, Star No. 13383, as charged herein, is guilty of violating, to wit:

Rule 2: Any action or conduct which impedes the Departments' efforts to achieve its policy and goals or brings discredit upon the Department, in that:

Count I: On or about June 8, 2006, at approximately 12:15 p.m., she failed to respond to an assignment at Saint Francis Hospital in Evanston, Illinois, thereby impeding the Department's efforts to achieve its policy and goals and/or bringing discredit upon the Department.

At the hearing on the charges, Sergeant David Natelson testified that he gave a verbal order to the Respondent to go to Saint Francis Hospital in Evanston to follow up with a battery victim. There was further testimony from Sergeant Valery Roytman, the sector sergeant and Respondent's supervisor at the time of the incident, that Respondent failed to follow that order. Furthermore, the sergeants testified that the dispatcher was unable to find Respondent when radio contact was attempted. Respondent was assigned to a one-person patrol car at the time of the incident.

(5) Respondent, Police Officer Linda Brumfield, Star No. 13383, as charged herein, is guilty of violating, to-wit:

Rule 2: Any action or conduct which impedes the Departments' efforts to achieve its policy and goals or brings discredit upon the Department, in that:

Count II: On or about June 8, 2006, at approximately 12:15 p.m., at Jordan Community School, located at approximately 7414 North Wolcott, in Chicago, she released to one or more persons a Chicago Police Department Report, R.D. No. HM-209714, without authorization, thereby impeding the Department's efforts to achieve its policy and goals and/or bringing discredit upon the Department.

Testimony was obtained from witnesses Dr. Maurice Harvey, principal of Jordan Community School, and Christine Davlantes, clerk to the principal, that Respondent gave them the Chicago Police Department Report as charged. Furthermore, there was testimony from Sergeant Roytman that Respondent had no authority to give the report to Harvey and Davlantes.

(6) Respondent, Police Officer Linda Brumfield, Star No. 13383, as charged herein, is guilty of violating, to-wit:

Rule 2: Any action or conduct which impedes the Departments' efforts to achieve its policy and goals or brings discredit upon the Department, in that:

Testimony was obtained from Sergeants Roytman and Natelson that Respondent exhibited the conduct as charged in violation of the applicable rule of conduct.

(7) Respondent, Police Officer Linda Brumfield, Star No. 13383, as charged herein, is guilty of violating, to-wit:

Rule 2: Any action or conduct which impedes the Departments' efforts to achieve its policy and goals or brings discredit upon the Department, in that:

Count IV: On or about June 8, 2006, at approximately 12:15 p.m., at Jordan Community School, located as approximately 7414 North Wolcott, in Chicago, she made one or more statements to Dr. Maurice Harvey, principal of Jordan Community School, including but not limited to: "brother, don't tell him (Sergeant Rotynman) anything," and/or "let's stick together," and/or "don't give the information to him," and/or "you will get me into trouble," or words to that effect, thereby impeding the Department's efforts to achieve its policy and goals and/or bringing discredit upon the Department.

Testimony was obtained from Dr. Harvey to confirm that these statements were made to him by Respondent, resulting in the violation of the rule of conduct.

(8) Respondent, Police Officer Linda Brumfield, Star No. 13383, as charged herein, is not guilty of violating, to-wit:

Rule 2: Any action or conduct which impedes the Departments' efforts to achieve its policy and goals or brings discredit upon the Department, in that:

Count V: The Superintendent did not prove by a preponderance of the evidence that on or about June 8, 2006, at approximately 1:00 p.m., at or near 7414 North Wolcott, in Chicago, she repeatedly called Sergeant Roytman and/or Sergeant Natelson "racist," or words to that effect, and/or stated that she was going to have Sergeant Roytman and/or Sergeant Natelson fired, thereby impeding the Department's efforts to achieve its policy and goals and/or bringing discredit upon the Department.

Any statements allegedly made by Respondent were not sufficiently inflammatory to warrant a finding by the Police Board that the Respondent was in violation of the Rule of Conduct charged.

(9) Respondent, Police Officer Linda Brumfield, Star No. 13383, as charged herein, is guilty of violating, to-wit:

Further testimony was obtained from Roytman and Natelson to support Respondent's conduct as charged, notwithstanding testimony from Davlantes and Harvey that they did not hear Respondent's tires screeching. The testimony from these witnesses on redirect examination by the Superintendent was that the windows to the area where this conduct took place were closed, resulting in Davlantes and Harvey being unable to hear Respondent's vehicle.

approximately 7414 North Wolcott, in Chicago, Sergeant Roytman grabbed her by the elbow and/or physically removed her from Jordan Community School in front of one or more staff members and/or students, and/or that Sergeant Natelson failed to take action to assist her when Sergeant Roytman grabbed her by the elbow and/or physically removed her from Jordan Community School, and/or denied that on June 8, 2006, she was ordered by Sergeant Roytman to return and/or failed to return to Sergeant Roytman a Chicago Police Department Report, R.D. No. HM-209714, thereby impeding the Department's efforts to achieve its policy and goals and/or bringing discredit upon the Department.

Uncontroverted testimony was obtained from Roytman and Natelson that the facts as presented by Respondent were incorrect. Furthermore, testimony was obtained from Davlantes and Harvey, who were at the scene, that the facts as reported by Respondent did not occur.

(11) Respondent, Police Officer Linda Brumfield, Star No. 13383, as charged herein, is guilty of violating, to-wit:
